Pastor's Corner

My dearest sisters and brothers in Christ,

The Greek word “tetelestai”, the perfect indicative passive tense of the word “Telos”, meaning “it is done, the battle has ended, it is finished.” This is the word used by Jesus in the Gospel of John as he ends this worldly existence upon the cross. This word has huge implications to our lives. It allows us to be free from yesterday. It invites us into living with hope, peace, joy, and love.

In the Greek business world, the word “telestai” was used when a debt is paid off in full. It did not signify that a payment was received. It signified that forever there is no more debt to pay. Once “telestai” was uttered, no longer was bondage the hold on the person with the debt. Jesus satisfied, still satisfies our debts. The hard questions are: What have we borrowed? Why do we have debt? God gives us everything we need in life, our necessities and nourishment for our bodies. God gives without our prayer, even to “evil” people. We are not worthy of anything God gives us. In fact, we sin (deny it is from God or that God's hands are the ones who provided) and yet God still provides. Our very breath is a gift from God. You would think that all we should do is love and honor God for this breath. But we don't always do this. Our Christian forefathers have told us that there is a debt to pay when we take God out of the equation. Every time we fail to love and honor God in thought, word, and deed, we accrue debt. This debt is paid on our benefit by Christ. Christ frees us from this bondage- it is done.

In the Greek armed forces world, the word “telestai” was used to signify the end of battle. Once “telestai” was uttered no more little wars would occur. The battle was done forever. We are under constant attack by forces which try to pull us from God. But separation from God is not a possibility. Our spiritual selves are sometimes swayed to believe that separation from God can happen. This cosmic (greater than this world) battle ended the moment Jesus cried out: Father, why have you forsaken me. It was at this moment that the curtain of the Temple was torn in two. (A little cosmic thinking- the Temple was the very presence of God in our world. Therefore, the fabric separating us from the Presence of God was torn. I tend to believe that this is God tearing the very fabric of time and space so to be fully present to Christ at the moment of death. God said to God's self, “You are never forsaken, never forgotten, never without me.”) The cosmic battle of whether separation from God is possible or not, was ended. The battle is over, the victory won. We are never separated from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

In the Greek skilled labor world, the word “telestai” was used to state that a project was finished. There would be no more tradespeople coming to add final touches. There would be no more work necessary for perfect. “Telestai” doesn't just mark that the task is past. It reaches into the future – it continues to be finished...absolutely finished forever. God's perfect work of creation is reached through the birth, death, and resurrection of Christ. This event in the work occurred beyond our concept of time and space, being an eternal work. It is finished – and so it frees us from works righteousness. It allows us to live in love with all of God's perfection. It invites us into honoring a grace-filled creator who cared for us before we even knew of existence and will care for us in perpetuity.

Deep words this month because of a deep invitation into fullness of life through Christ our Lord. May the deep invite you into discovery of new life. Life grounded in love, hope, peace, and joy. Life gifted through a work that is done, ended, finished for eternity. Life where we do what others only dream about because we are free, unburdened by Christ's works and loosened by the invitation of the deep. Come, be church, recognize “telestai”!

Your brother in Christ, Pr. Brian

Treasurers Report

The Church's budget deficit at the end of March was (- $6,593). At the end of March of 2021 (last year), the Church actually had a budget surplus of $834. In addition, regular budgeted income received through the end of last March was $3,530 more than this year. There were 13 Sundays' in the 1st quarter of 2021 as well as the 1st quarter of 2022 so that wasn't it. Last year, Easter was on April the 4th; this year it's on April the 17th, so that's not it. Let's hope things pick up financially from April the 1st moving forward. 2022 has been a bit of an off year.

Special gifts received in March were as follows: Capital Campaign- $1,120, Pastor's Discretionary Fund- $2,025, Neighbor Support Funds- $1,850, Building Fund- $15, Ukraine Relief (congregation)- $4,072, Ukraine Relief ("Morning Glories Fund)- $28, Thrivent Grant Payment- $951.

The $4,100 total in Ukraine relief was sent to Lutheran World Relief in Baltimore, MD on 3-39-22. This organization then matched Holy Trinity's donation and sent a total of $8,200 on to help the good people of the Ukraine. Church Council also approved a $1,000 donation for Ukraine help from our Neighbor Support Funds Account. This donation was sent to St. Mary's Ukrainian Orthodox Church on Fullerton Ave. in Allentown on 3-29-22. Finally, the YMCA in Allentown received a donation of $1,543 in late March for their warming Station. These funds came from our Kielbasa Dinner of 3/19.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to these special causes.

I am writing this report on Saturday, April the 9th – the day before Palm Sunday. I am hoping that Holy week of 2022 was a very good one financially for Holy Trinity.

Partnering-

- Family Promise next hosting will be week of June 5th. Fourth meeting with political leaders occurred on April 22nd . The conversation has us looking for new partners, perhaps with Red Cross to open a RedCross House of the Lehigh Valley. We paused Coffee with a Cop. Holy Trinity bought road banners to support School District C3P (Catasauqua Community that Cares Program. 1 banner is on Front St across from Church St on fencing. 3 banners will be in/on the school buildings.
- Praising-
- 3 services available on Sunday mornings but back to old schedule: 8, 9, 10:30.
- 8am will be spoken with communion. 9am is discovering radically different worship styles (worship through fellowship, social ministry events, and more). 10:30 will be traditional European worship.

Growing-

- Summer music camp for children of Catasauqua will be happening in July. Council discussing a Who Is This Jesus mural on hallway wall. If your family would like to reflect and converse about who is this Jesus and send an image which reflects your discovery, that image may make it into the mural.

It's time to turn in your images!

Dawn Godshall Executive Director of Community Action of the Lehigh Valley spoke to us about their many outreaches. Their Mission Statement is to improve the quality of life by building a community in which all people have access to economic opportunity, the ability to pursue that opportunity, and a voice in the decisions that affect their lives. She spoke about Second Harvest which is housed in Nazareth and could always use volunteers to help pack boxes, about The Seed Farm which is part of Second Harvest and is located outside Emmaus. Dawn told us about their Generation X program which helps send young people to college. She spoke about the Sixth Street Shelter and the impact on families. She told us about the SHE program for young girls in grades 5th thru 8th. There are many more community projects that they are also involved with.

Ongoing Projects: Turning Point used cell phone collection: (Linda Wiland): She explained that she learned that any cell phone memory is destroyed. Morning Glories Bulletin Board in Alice Storch Room has been seasonally updated by Vicki Chimics and Judy Connelly; thanks to both of them.

Annual May Cay Galgon Baby Bottle Campaign: Diane Carfara has the bottles ready for us; Kathy Nattress will help with the counting of the coins/cash/checks in the returned bottles. The campaign will run from May 1 through June 5; empty bottles will be in a bassinet in the back of church and you can return filled bottles to the bassinet. Last year's total was $971; in 2017, our total was $1,500.

Did you know? The Lions Club collects used eyeglasses (they don't need the cases) for areas in the world where glasses are an unheard of luxury. The Lions have the glasses polished and shipped to optical missions around the world. The glasses are spread out, and the community members try on the glasses until they find a pair that helps. Can you imagine? Your used glasses can be dropped off in the box at the Whitehall Public Library, or here at Holy Trinity in the baskets outside the office and in the entryway to the sanctuary (narthex).

Redner's – Save - A- Tape program: Holy Trinity collects Redner's receipts. Proceeds support camperships for Holy Trinity youth who want to attend a week of camp at Bear Creek. Please place receipts in the basket in the Narthex.

BIG SCRIP news! One of our participants recently purchased a new laptop using Best Buy ecards from SCRIP, raising over $30 for Holy Trinity!! The participant notified us of their plans, which occurred in between normal monthly orders...and we hooked them up with ecards, which were ready for use immediately. All they had to do was show the emailed cards to the Best Buy employee, and the transaction was completed! This was the second time a big purchase by a SCRIP participant earned a big chunk of change for Holy Trinity...they planned ahead and ordered Lowes cards for their kitchen renovation.

So what does that say for the "average" participant whose orders (or purchases from the cards we have in stock) net just a few dollars? They are just as important as the big purchases! It all adds up to faith formation bills being paid, and scholarships being provided to our graduating high school seniors who are headed to further training/education.

You can shop for birthdays, Mother's Day, graduations, teacher thank-you's, Father's Day, and other occasions with SCRIP gift cards. You'll spend the same amount as you would using cash or a credit card, and you'll be supporting Holy Trinity's faith formation activities via the rebate that the SCRIP program gives to HT for each card purchased!

We welcome texts or calls to Diane (610-739-6006) for card requests, or see Joe or Diane after 9am worship. IOUs are welcome! The deadline for our next regular order is Sunday, May 8th.

Here are the cards available for immediate purchase - the profit realized by HT when these cards were ordered ranged from 2-16% (that's like $16 raised on a $100 card purchase!!):

COFFEE: Dunkin Starbucks Wawa

GROCERIES and PRESCRIPTIONS: Walmart/Sam's Club Weis Giant

GAS: Giant Weis Sheetz Wawa

SHOPPING/GIFTING: Amazon Kohl's Target Bed Bath & Beyond Walmart Cabela's LL Bean

CRAFTING: Joann Fabric Michael's

HOME IMPROVEMENT: Lowe's Home Depot

FAST FOOD & DINING: Applebee's Olive Garden Longhorn Steakhouse Panera Buffalo Wild Wings Arby's Burger King Wendy's Little Caesars Subway Taco Bell

YOUTH NEWS

HUGE thanks to everyone who supported the return of our egg hunt event the day before Easter, bringing kids and parents from the community to our church lawn and fellowship hall. Dozens of kids age 1-6 scrambled for over a thousand eggs, while kids age 7-12 got started with Bingo in the fellowship hall. Becky from Blondie's and her assistant/son, Collin, called a lively hour of Bingo, complete with prizes for over 30 children. We couldn't have done it without the generous donations of egg-fillers from our church family; the enthusiastic filling of the eggs by our 9-o'clockers during our relaxed worship service on April 3rd (and follow-up by our church secretary, Robin); and set-up help by Becky and Collin, Pastor Brian, and Randy Schoeneberger. And the actual event was successful because of the teamwork of three of our youth - Riley Knecht, Ian Thomas, and youth alumnus Emily Suter, plus Collin - and adult volunteers Dorianne Gogal, Randy Schoeneberger, Melissa Knecht, and Becky and her mom, Rose. You can see photos of the event on Holy Trinity's Facebook page.

The next big event is the return of the annual Junior Victorian Tea and Basket Raffle on Sunday, May 15th from 2-4pm. Tickets are required (adult $4, $2 per child) - call or text 610-739-6006. Adults must be accompanied by a child! In the past, we've had children from age 1 to about 13 who have enjoyed various aspects of the tea: dress-ups, a craft, BINGO (with prizes, of course!), the basket raffle, and of course the delicious refreshments served on fancy dishes! You can dress up or come in casual attire. Boys and their dads or grandpas have enjoyed the event - it's not just for girls! So spread the word! 100% of the proceeds will go toward a "puppy scholarship" for Tails of Valor, Paws of Honor. If you'd like to help out at the tea or want to donate a kid- or family-friendly basket for the raffle, let Diane know (610-739-6006).

PARENTS: IMPORTANT DATES TO PUT ON YOUR CALENDARS (and parents, don't forget to return the "RSVP" page of the letter seeking your youth's interest in and availability for these events):

NEIGHBOR SUPPORTING NEIGHBOR

~ Hot soup and warm hospitality continued to be on the menu at Holy Trinity through the month of April. Big, BIG thanks go to Pastor Brian and his team of cooks, dishwashers, and hosts, and to those who have donated supplies and funding to keep this ministry alive for our church family and community! Over 125 pints of soup have been served each week since the beginning of December 2021.

~ Your generous donations in March resulted in a total offering of $4100 for relief efforts for Ukraine. In addition, our Church Council sent $1000 from Holy Trinity's Neighbor Support Fund to St. Mary's Ukrainian Orthodox Church on Fullerton Avenue, Allentown, to support their shipment of desperately-needed items to Ukraine.

~ Looking for an easy way to support another community partner? Start collecting items for the yard sale to be held on August 6th! The Catasauqua Public Library will use our space and our expertise for the sale, and will receive 100% of the proceeds. Drop-off of items will begin a week before the sale - times and dates for drop-off to be announced later. And why not reserve some time during the week of August 1-6 to help with set-up and to volunteer the day of the sale. No special skills required, and even an hour of help is MUCH appreciated!

~ The 5 Loaves team met in March to fine-tune plans for upcoming dinners to benefit our neighbors. If you would like to be part of this team's work (there are many ways to help!), talk to Janis Charvala (610-440-0073).

~ Our building's doors continue to welcome well-known and fresh faces seeking emergency assistance, help securing means to become self-sufficient, rides to appointments...or often just a cup of coffee and a listening ear. Thank you for your continued donations to the Pastor's Discretionary and Neighbor Support Funds that keep the financial part of Holy Trinity's service to the community a reality.

May our hearts be broken by the things that break the heart of God, and may we be moved to provide the hand that lifts someone up - whether it be through a monetary donation, making a phone call or sending a card, or just smiling or
